RIMREC RECREATION HEROES

Recreation Heroes Making a Difference on the Mountain

For the past three years, Danny Satorius has been introducing mountain youth to the strategic and creative world of chess through the Rim of the World Recreation and Park District. His dedication was on full display at the recent Mountain Youth Chess Festival, held March 1 at the Twin Peaks Community Center.

The event drew such an incredible turnout that parents lined the perimeter of the building – and even peeked through the windows – to watch the matches unfold. Families traveled from neighboring communities, creating a powerful show of support and mountain pride. With the help of an outstanding team of volunteer coaches and parents, the tournament ran smoothly and concluded with an awards ceremony featuring medals and trophies provided by the Park District.

Danny's passion for chess began during his college years at the University of California, Santa Barbara, where he first discovered the depth and beauty of the 1,500-year-old game. Inspired by legendary masters such as Alexander Alekhine, Mikhail Botvinnik, Garry Kasparov, and Bobby Fischer, Danny has spent decades sharing how chess strengthens critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving skills that extend far beyond the board.

We also celebrate Running Springs resident Reed Teter, who recently completed his Eagle Scout project with the installation of a public-access AED station at the Running Springs Ball Field / Caplinger Soccer Field. This fully self-contained outdoor unit provides rapid access to lifesaving equipment during games, practices, and community events – a forward-thinking addition that enhances safety for everyone who enjoys our parks.

Reed's project, funded through a community crowdfunding campaign, was completed at no cost to the Park District. In recognition of his service and dedication to the mountain community, Reed will be honored as a Recreational Hero at the Park District Board Meeting on March 23, 2026.

We are grateful for leaders like Danny and Reed who continue to strengthen our mountain community through education, service, and heart.

A special thanks to Lindsey Villarreal and Evan Smith for their dedication to our Little Hoopers Program for players in 2nd grade and below. Your work teaching our youngest athletes the game is greatly appreciated.

We also want to thank all our referees, scorekeepers, coaches, team moms, and especially parents for supporting our athletes throughout the season. Programs like this wouldn't be possible without you.

We can't wait to see everyone next basketball season! In the meantime, NFL Flag Football registration will be opening soon – we hope to see many of you on the gridiron this summer.

It's been an honor to work with such an amazing community.

CONTINUING A COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY RECREATION

Parks. Programs. People.

The Rim of the World Recreation and Park District has long been committed to providing quality programs, facilities, and services to mountain communities since 1985. From parks and community centers to sports leagues and community events, the District works to keep residents and visitors active, engaged, and connected.

Boundaries cover over 70,000 acres across Blue Jay, Crestline, Green Valley Lake, Lake Arrowhead, Rimforest, and Running Springs, the District is an independent special district –locally governed and focused on delivering recreation and park services tailored to community needs. This year, the District operates on a $1.131 million budget, with approximately two-thirds of its funding generated from a fixed $22 annual per-parcel property tax approved by voters in 2010—remaining unchanged for 16 years—and the remainder supported through program and facility use fees. While this model ensures local control, it also requires careful management to maintain and expand services, especially as costs for materials and operations continue to rise.

The Rim of the World Recreation and Park Fund, managed with guidance from the Inland Empire Community Foundation, plays a key role in supporting the District's efforts. Contributions help enhance programs, improve parks, and support community events beyond what traditional funding alone can provide—ensuring transparency, sustainability, and continued opportunities for the community.

As community needs grow and costs evolve, the District remains focused on long-term planning to sustain the quality of its programs and facilities. Community awareness and involvement, including support through the Fund and other financial resources, will help shape the future of local recreation for generations to come.

By staying informed, residents can better understand and support ongoing efforts to maintain and strengthen recreational opportunities across the mountain region.
