

Elizabeth Greeban

Elizabeth (Liz) Greeban is the newest member of the Rim of the World Recreation and Park District Board of Directors, appointed in March of 2021. Having grown up on the mountain Liz is a proud resident and excited to serve the community that she loves. Liz has a special compassion for wildlife and the environment, and is also a member of the Save our Forrest Association and the Sierra Club. Currently Liz works as a lecturer in arts and media for UCI's School of Education. Having taught the arts to both young and old has shown her the importance of enriching activities during all life stages. Liz hopes to help realize the Park District's mission statement to help enrich and fulfill the lives of the citizens through the provision of facilities and programs that will provide and enhance creative, wholesome and imaginative leisure time living patterns.

"Heathy recreation is more important than ever as we and finding new ways of connecting with each other. This is a great time to be a part of the movement back outdoors and into the community! I'm excited to help make lives better in my own community, to which I owe so much."
